

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH
CENTRAL DIVISION

JOSE MORENO, Individually, and on Behalf of All Others Similarly Situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

POLARITYTE, INC.; DENVER LOUGH;
and JEFF DYER,

Defendants.

ORDER GRANTING STIPULATED
JOINT MOTION TO STAY ORDER TO PROPOSE SCHEDULE

Case No. 2:18-cv-00510-JNP-PMW

District Judge Jill N. Parrish

Chief Magistrate Judge Paul M. Warner

Before the court is the Parties' stipulated joint motion to stay the court's Order to Propose Schedule. The Parties' motion is GRANTED. Accordingly:

1. The tasks set forth in the Order to Propose Schedule (Dkt. No. 11) shall not occur unless and until the action proceeds past the motion-to-dismiss stage; and
2. In the event that the action proceeds past the motion-to-dismiss stage, the Order to Propose Schedule (Dkt. No. 11) shall not be considered to be entered until twenty-one (21) days after the order denying a motion to dismiss has been issued.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 10th day of August, 2018.

BY THE COURT:

PAUL M. WARNER
Chief United States Magistrate Judge
